“ It has been my pleasure to share a 37 year, life long friendship with Bro. William. I've known him to be a gentleman, a peacemaker and a person of integrity. One of the sermons I brought when he would travel along with us was "Hold On, Hold Up, and Hold Out. He often would remind me that he never forgot that word when I would visit with him. Brother, rest now in the heavenly realm of Jesus. We will meet again.
