

William Henry Jennings

January 27, 1959 - June 24, 2007

William H. Jennings, fondly known as “Byrd”, son of the late Joanne Jennings, was born January 22, 1959 in Queens, New York was called home on June 24, 2007 after a lengthy battle of cancer to be with the Lord. God changed William pain and suffering to peace and sweet lovable joy on June 24, 2007. The writer, Joan Webb said it so eloquently – “Each of us has a choice – we can choose to accept the things that we can’t change and learn to act on the things that we can change”. Lying quietly at home reflecting on his life, and the blessing that God so graciously grant him during his early years, William made the choice to put his hand in God’s hand and accept the peace that no one else could grant him. William received his high school diploma and completed two years of college. William also received his certificate at Community College of Baltimore in Home Improvement. He married Deborah H. Cleveland; no children were born from this union. William had many friends, you can always find William doing or taking someone wherever they need to go even when he was not feeling well. He always put everyone needs above his. William had a heart of gold. William rarely knew the word “no”, when it came to helping others. William leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Deborah, sister, Desiree Williams, four sons: Robbie Turner, William H. Byrd, Freddie, Anton; four daughters: Takeemia Byrd, Erica, Judetta, Jene’; 1 daughter-in-law, Keshia; eight brothers-in-law, James, Gregory, Eucardio, Christopher, Kevin Cleveland, Leon Wallace, Bill Shird, and Bernard Burns; four sisters-in-law, Sandra Burns, Lendora Cleveland, Eleanor Powell, and Cora Shird; nine grandchildren; mother-in-law, Shirley Gray; God-daughter, Mercedes. A host of other relatives and many friends.

“ My dear and most handsome husband in June it will be 17 years since you left me and it still doesn't get any easier I just learn to carry on because this is what you would want but always remember that the day that you close your eyes you took a part of me with you. As Always and Forever your wife Debbie 💔💔💔💔

“ June of 2023 will be 16 years since you left me; I thought it would be easy; but every year it like living it all over again. My dear husband and friend; I miss you so very much ; at times I just start crying wondering why God took you from me ; but I know that God knew what was best because you are no longer suffering as always like we always tell one another. Always and Forever. Deborah Jennings (Debbie) 🌹🌹🌹💔💔💔💔

“ We were saddened to hear of the passing of your loved one. Please know that our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family at this difficult time. May you find comfort and strength from the God of all comfort at 2 Corin. 1:3,4. I hope this message from the Bible comfort your heart and gives you the strength to go on.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ I would like to share some words of hope and comfort to you all, because I have lost loved dear one in death also. The circle of life is NEVER the same again. Imagine the happiness to be our when the dead are resurrected back to life on a earthy paradise FREE from worries and pain and sorrow. William , from the thoughts of him was a giving person as Acts 20:35, say " THERE IS MORE HAPPINESS IN GIVING THAN RECEIVING." May all the funny and sad and cherished and precious things shared with William help to heal the heart and support you all in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
