

William Henry Williams

July 26, 1974 - February 21, 2009

WILLIAM H. WILLIAMS, son of Velma Williams and James Cobb, was born on July 26, 1974. He departed this life on February 21, 2009 after a lengthy illness. He received his education from Job Corps with honors certificates in brick laying, masonry, computer science and business management. Upon completion of his education, he was employed by Klein Construction and several 7-Eleven franchises as a manager. He participated in the U. S. Census for the State of Maryland as a supervisor. He was also an advocate for the homeless. Bee-Bee was better known as Lexus and was well-loved by many. He enjoyed life to the fullest. Bee-Bee kept you laughing in any given situation. He enjoyed art and was very computer oriented. If you needed your computer repaired or had any computer problem, you could call Lexus. Lexus was very well-groomed and kept up with the latest fashion. Lexus was very high maintenance. He also loved his sister Nita Bug. He adored his grandmother Effie Mae Cobb and she loved her Bee. Despite the fact that he did not see his father often, he loved him also. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Velma Williams; father, James Cobb; sister, Anita Williams; nephews, Little Man and Mikey; special love for his cousin, Cornisha Grover; aunts, Sylvia Dawson, Anita Williams, Renee Burns, Gloria Lumpkin, Oralee Cobb, Annie Mae Cobb, Susie Cobb and special aunt, Polly; uncles including Gene Williams; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". Also, 1 Corinthians 15:26 lovingly reveals that Almighty God is going to destroy our enemy death. May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
