

William C. Hicklin Jr.

May 26, 1953 - June 3, 2013

WILLIAM C. HICKLIN JR., son of the late William C. Hicklin Sr. and Mary Francis Hicklin, was born on May 26, 1953 in Chester, South Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on June 3, 2013.

He received his education at Baltimore City College High School in Baltimore, Maryland from where he graduated in 1972. After graduating from high school, he became an apprentice plumber with Auld Plumbing Company. This would become the beginning of his lifelong career and passion. He became a member of Holy Trinity Church of God In Christ at the young age of eight, under the leadership of Dr. Arthur R. Shields and he became the church's first official usher.

He married Sandra Gibson on December 6, 1975, and out of this union two children were born, William and Ellisa. Later in life he was blessed with another son named Eric, who preceded him in death.

William made numerous friends wherever he went and was willing to lend a hand wherever he was needed, whether it was to a small child in the neighborhood or an elderly person who needed him to hang a window blind or repair a leaky faucet. He always had a smile and was known throughout Baltimore for his willingness to help whenever he could. When called upon, many times his response would be, "Let me get my tools and let me see what

I can do.”

William affectionately known as “Tootie,” “Mr. Will” or “Peoples,” shall be truly missed by all that knew him. He was the type of person who would eagerly converse with everyone. He loved to reminisce about old times and share a meal with you. Once you met him and laughed and talked with him, you felt as though you had known him for years.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Mrs. Mary F. Hicklin; one son, William C. Hicklin III; and one daughter, Ellisa C. Harty; one sister, Mary E. Hicklin Hurley; one brother, Michael W. Hicklin; six grandsons and one granddaughter; one brother-in-law, Anthony E. Hurley and Velinda Cooke; a life-long friend and companion and her children; as well as nieces, nephews, grand-nieces, grand-nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I wanted to send my condolences to this lovely family. May the memories of him help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Please remember that William is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting on the promise that Jesus made at John 5:28 & 29, which states, " Marvel not at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the graves will hear his voice & come out".

We can see William again, right here on this earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29).

Love,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
