

William Hill

April 4, 1931 - January 23, 2007

Robert was born on April 4, 1931 to the union of the late William A. Hill and Verlie Easley Hill. He was one of their ten children. Robert was born in Nathalie, Virginia, and grew up in Halifax, Virginia. He graduated from the Halifax County Public Schools. He was baptized at an early age at Millstone Baptist Church. He was an usher in his youth until he left for the service. He served in the United States Army for two years and left in 1955. On December 4, 1954 Robert met the love of his life, Shirley Conith Hill. Within less than one year he married his precious sweetheart on September 24, 1955. The newlyweds relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in December 1955 and began their new life together. Their union was blessed with three sons and one daughter. Robert was employed at Bethlehem Steel at Sparrow's Point, Baltimore. He was a member of the Steelworkers Union as well as the "Fish and Hunt Club". In 1971, Robert opened the family business within the Coldstream community. His commitment and service in the steel industry was exemplary, it provided him the fortitude to fully transition from the steel industry to his family business (full time) in 1986. Robert retired from the family business in 1999 where his son continues the legacy. Robert's beloved wife preceded in death eight days prior to Robert. He leaves to celebrate his homegoing; three sons, Jerriou, Malcom, and William Roger, one daughter, Shirelle, three grandchildren, Kerria S. Hill, Erica S. Russum and Wesley Hill, four great-grandchildren, Keontay Perry, Keonai Perry, Jerome Adams, Jr., Kamyia Adams. He is survived by four siblings, Alice Bouldin of Piscataway, NJ, Vernell Terry of Philadelphia, PA (husband, Wilson Terry), Gracie Brown of Halifax, VA. And Wade Hill of Baltimore, Maryland. Five siblings, Geneva Coleman, Vernice King, Frank D. Hill, Murray Hill and Janet Edmodson preceded him in death. A special relationship with niece Vanessa "Boo" Hill and a host of cousins, niece and nephews in addition to many good friends.

Tribute Wall

“ William Hill

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Hill's ! I send my condelences to the family and friends. I too know the feeling of losing some one in death. Death leaves a huge hole in our hearts. The bible can help you all get comfort at this time in you all life. There are many promises such Isa. 26;19, Luke 20:37-38. our heavenly knew how you all are feeling now and take comfort that he cares. I hope these few uplifting thoughts have been of some comfort to you all. I send my condolences. Crosby##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM