

William Hooks

December 27, 1977 - February 6, 2006

On February 6, 2006, William (affectionately known as Pop or Tony) suddenly departed this life at Sinai Hospital. Will was the son of Sylvia Miller and Earl Antonio Hill. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. William was a kind-hearted and fun-loving young man. He liked to have fun and was such a prankster. William loved to write rap music and dreamed of performing on his own record label. William loved his family and proved to be loyal and trustworthy to his friend. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother Sylvia; his father Antonio; one brother, Kenneth; sister-in-law, Michelle; grandmother, Patria Hill; aunts Linda and Daphne; uncles, Eric Hill and Jerome Shakir; devoted cousin, Bynell Miller; longtime companion, Tahkemia Hodge; devoted friend Elienne and many other caring relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ William Hooks

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible is a book of comfort and hope. (Romans 15:4) Acts 24:15 assures us that "there is going to be a resurrection." By that time there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Hooks. Death is such a tragedy especially for such a young person. May your family find comfort in the words of Isaiah 25:8 "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces".....##imported-begin##K. Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I'd like to take this opportunity to express my sincere condolences to you and your family. The loss of a loved one always brings sadness and it reminds us of how fragile life can be. Please keep in mind the Bible's message that there will come a time when "Death will be no more". (Rev. 21:4) There will also come a time when wickedness will be no more. (Ps. 37:9-11) If you would like to know more, please contact me at WSloanew@aol.com. Wendell D. Sloane##imported-begin##Wendell D. Sloane##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is such a sad thing that we have to endure at present. My condolences to the family. To the mom, I particularly know your pain, because I too lost my only son at a young age. What has comforted me over the years since I lost him is the sure hope that one day we will be reunited. What a joy that will be to all mothers who have lost children in death. May it comfort you to know that Jesus gave his precious life so that all may live. He said at John:10,10, "I have come so they might have life and have it in abundance." He resurrected many people when he was on the earth, thus demonstrating what he will do on a grand scale now that he is our reigning king of Jehovah's kingdom. Very soon we will be able to hold our children in our arms again. May th happy times you shared with your loved one sustain you until that joyful day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM