

William E. Hughes

April 20, 1944 - September 6, 2013

WILLIAM E. HUGHES was born to the late Bernard Daurad and Edythe Taylor on April 20, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home on September 6, 2013. He received his education in Jersey City, New Jersey public school system.

He served six years in the United States Army as a Sergeant. Upon his departure from the Army, he began his employment with the Mass Transit Administration in Baltimore, Maryland. He retired from the Baltimore Mass Transit Administration on July 17, 2008, with forty-three years of service.

William was a fun loving and easy spirit man. He enjoyed traveling and he could talk to anyone. He loved all sports, but he loved watching his favorite football team, the New Orleans Saints. He loved jazz, his favorite artist included: Frank Sinatra, Sara Vaughan, Carmen McRae and Ella Fitzgerald.

William was a devoted family man and he enjoyed spending time with his loved ones. William leaves us all with many treasure memories that will live on in our hearts forever.

William leaves many cherished memories with: his wife,

Sandra Hughes. He leaves to mourn: four daughters, Grace Brown, Melissa Leone, Kimberly Campbell and Tonia Tyson; two step-sons, Donald Wooden Jr. and Antione Wooden; a devoted mother-in-law, Delores Clarkson; several sisters and brothers-in-law, Bonita Manigo, Deborah Harris, Chrissie Harris, Maurice Harris, Richard Harris and Vincent Harris; four sons-in-law, Eduardo Leone, Rodney Brown, Jessie Campbell and Quinton Tyson; twelve grandkids, Antoine Wooden Jr., Shanekia Wooden, Ayanna Brown, Toure Brown, Areil Leone, Kwame Brown, Brittany Leone, Martez Yancey, Christopher Duncan Jr., Mariah Yancey, Candice Duncan and Mya Campbell; ten great-grandkids, Takiyah Bray, Malik Harris, Ferris Rice, Taurus Bray II, Camaya Pinnick, DeAndre Wooden, Nasir Brown, David Boozer, Amai'lea McNeil and Camden Leone; and a host of very devoted aunts, relatives and friends.
