“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev.21:4-5). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end###

“ To the family you have my condolences. To suffer a lost of a love one is truly painful it something that is not normal to get use to but may you rest your hope in God's word the bible at John 11:25,26 shows that there will be a resurrection if we continue to excersise faith in God. So there is a chance of seeing your dead love one again. May this hope bring you comfort.###imported-begin###Derek Farmer###imported-end###

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus Christ, bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ To: Leo and Family: When it is too hard to hide your tears, then never mind... Start chopping onions. Let the heart cry and you just smile and put the blame on the onions... As you grieve know that we are remembering you and honoring the memory of your father, Deacon Brook. With deepest sympathy Sam###imported-begin##Sam Williams##imported-end##
