

William J. Chestnut

December 13, 1918 - October 25, 2002

William James Chestnut, the son of the late James William and Alice chestnut, was born on December 13, 1918. He departed this life on October 25, 2002. William received his education in the Public School System of South Carolina. He relocated to Baltimore in 1942 where he was employed at Revere Copper and Brass Company for many years. After that he went to work at Sparrows Point Steel Mill until he retired in 1980. William was known as Mr. Bill by his friends at Sparrows Point and in East Baltimore, where he lived for many years of his life. He was a very friendly person and will be missed by all that knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted friend and caregiver, Mary Talley; one daughter, Ethel Travers; one granddaughter, Karen Denise Travers; one great-granddaughter, Monique Banks; four brothers, Moses, McDonald and Isaiah Chestnut of Baltimore, Maryland; and John Chestnut of Sumter, South Carolina; five sisters, Beatrice Commander, Alice Chestnut of Baltimore, Hattie McNeal of Warren, Ohio, Catherine McCray and Naomi Chestnut of Sumter, South Carolina, and a host of nieces and nephews.
