

William Jacobs

June 15, 1945 - February 13, 2004

William Jacobs, born June 15, 1945 to Myrtle Dickerson and Norman Jacobs in Baltimore, Maryland, departed this life on February 13, 2004 after a lengthy illness. William was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked as a longshoreman for over thirty years at Maryland Dry Dock. He had most recently retired after suffering from chronic illness. William was affectionately known as “Jake” to friends and family. Jake was a lover of music, especially jazz by the classical musicians such as Miles Davis and Thelonious Monk, as well as old school rhythm and blues. He was also a lover of contemporary art in black and white. Jake also loved African cultural art. He frequented live music concerts at the Meyerhoff Symphony Hall and Pier Six. He held annual memberships to the Meyerhoff and had traveled as far as New Orleans to annual Jazz concerts. Jake was devoted to his mother, as well as she to him. His brother and sister will remember him as a very sociable person who enjoyed having the “finer” things in life. All the family will miss and remember him lovingly as “Willie” or “Jake,” and will hope that he is in a better place. May his soul journey to a peaceful place and may the light of his Creator shine upon him. William leaves to mourn: his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Dickerson; brother, James Dickerson; sisters, Mrs. Louise Beel and Isabelle Dickerson; one aunt, Mrs. Louise Blake; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
