

William I. Johnson

February 16, 1941 - December 2, 2015

William Isiah Johnson, Jr., son of the late William, Sr. and Helen Johnson was born on February 16, 1941. He departed this life on December 2, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools.

William became a full time butcher for Superfresh Super Market where he retired after 42 years of faithful service.

He had three children: William, Wanda and Derrick. He later married Brenda Brown and out of their union five children were born: Kevin, Keith, Lisa, Melissa and Stacie.

William loved fishing watching football, watching Western movies and spending time with his grandchildren.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and fellowship with the Emanuel Apostolic Faith Church on Loch Raven Boulevard.

William made friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his eight children; five sisters, Trina, Connie, Isabelle, Maggie and Helen; three brothers, Jimmy, Randolph and Jesse; a host of grandchildren, great grands, nieces and nephews; two daughters-in-law, Betty and Tammy Johnson; one son-in-law, Reuben Vrolijk; one sister-in-law, Gloria Green; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Uncle Turkey, you were the "Coolest Guy", I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. Always seeing you dressed to impress and with a toothpick in the corner of your mouth. Always giving the twins Maggie & Isabelle a new shiny penny for their birthday each and every year. I miss and love you, Uncle Turkey. Love, Chandra
