“ Dear Barbara and Family
Woke up thinking of you all this morning
As you know, we are so vety sorry about the loss of your brother"Bill"
I am so glad the chance to meet him way before his many challenges.
It was touching to hear how he was "there" for his sibliings and others. Thank God he was your big brother teacher and your guardian Angel. You were a blessing to him for you responded in kind to him when he needed you. What a beautiful family legacy of love!!
Much love to you and yours,
Wilhelmina Nutter (bka-"Mimi")

“ Dear Barbara,

You were so kind and loving during the illness and death of my dear sister.
I hope you can find comfort and peace in the precious memories you had with your brother, William S. Kimbrough.
Your loving family is truly a testament to one of the miracles of God's love.
