“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible lovingly tells us about our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Acts 24:15 says- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from the maker of these promises Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon & Joe Hill##imported-end##

“ Please know that you are not alone at this time of, great sorrow. Our loving father in the heaven is right there waiting to comfort you. Talk to him, he knows the pain that death brings. He felt that pain, when his beloved son Jesus Christ died, and because he knows the pain. He promise to put a end to death-- Isaiah 25:8 “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...” As we all know, “it is impossible for God to lie.” Hebrew 6:18. . In time the pain will ease and you will remember the good time, because Jehovah is a God of love and he will never give us to much to bear, at times like this we need to do what Psalms 55:22 tells us to do, “Throw your burden on Jehovah himself. And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.”###imported-begin###D.Kennedy###imported-end###

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of William. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
