

William Curtis Latham

September 30, 1930 - March 12, 2011

Peacefully on March 12, 2011, WILLIAM CURTIS LATHAM, transcended to his creator. Through a narrow pathway with room for only one, which leads to a door opening into a wonderful realm of light? His heavenly father was there and as he crossed the threshold, he gathered him close to his breath and all his troubles ceased.

Curtis's journey stated September 29, 1930 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina when he was born the fourth son of the late Windsor and Vanella Latham. He grew up loving people and a peacemaker. He attended Edgecombe County Public schools and later enlisted in the United States Army. He then returned back to Baltimore, Maryland and worked several mechanical jobs. In 1992, he retired from Bethlehem Steel where he worked for "forty one years and nine months."

Williams Curtis Latham had the biggest heart of anybody that you could ever meet. He fixed his own car and the cars for many of his dear friends and family members. He believed in community and community building. He became an active member of Calvary Baptist and remained faithful until his death. He grew up in a large family which consisted of six boys and five girls. Preceding him in death were, Leroy, Jesse, Bessie, Willie ray, Blanche, Francis, Bettye, and Winsor Jr. for those Curtis left behind, we are reminded that he has found the secret of God's presence and we are temporarily left to carry on: his beloved and devoted wife of 47 years, Brenda; two sons, Kevin and Anthony; one grand daughter, Tiera and three grandsons, Anthony Jr., Joshua, and Donovan; one brother, Frank and one sister, Dot; four sister-in-laws and one brother-in-law; a devoted nephew, Oscar; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
