

William Lewis

March 12, 1961 - June 8, 2004

William H. Lewis Jr., son of the late William H. Lewis Sr. and the late Louise Lewis, was born on March 12, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 8, 2004 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Carver High School in Baltimore. At the age of eighteen, he got his first job at Lexington Market, on a part-time basis while he attended RETS Electronics School. His friends and family fondly knew William as "Junie." Junie was a great cook who loved cooking for anyone that would ask him. Junie had many jobs as the head cook in Baltimore, Washington, D.C. and New Jersey in the last fourteen years. Junie made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his grandmother, Rose White; two brothers, Morris Lewis and Curtis Lewis; one sister, Regina Lewis; two nephews, Jaimie Singletary Jr. and Deonta Jacobs; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
