“ Lionel, my brother although I never had the opportunity to meet you. My cousin Nathan spoke very highly of you. He told me some of the stories that you, him and Al shared together. The lord has a way of rendering himself at the least expected time of our lives. My spirit tells me that you are going to a resting place now. No more trials or tribulations. No more pain or rain, the lord has promised us a resting place in what we know as heaven. Rest in peace my brother. Also to the family of Mr. Wright I would like to extend my deepest gratitude and sympathy. In Jesus Christ name... Amen###imported-begin##Sean Monroe##imported-end##

“ A poem for the Wright family: Weep not for me now that I have passed. Remember the laughter, the affection, the joy not just the recent tears. Cherish the memories, our hopes and dreams. Hold fast to the love that we shared. Be happy with the time we spent together and being anew. For I am not really gone, I am closer than ever before. As the morning sun rises and throughout the busy day...I am with you. Until the setting sun disappears on the horizon and we watch the day turn into night...I am here. You may feel a faint breeze stir round your head, while you slumber as I gently kiss your forehead, "Good night." The stars that shine so brightly in my heavenly sky help me watch over you and keep you from harm. I am the wind in the trees and the song of a bird. I am moonbeams in a midnight sky and a glorious rainbow after the storm. I am morning dew and freshly-fallen snow. I am a butterfly flying overhead and a puppy happily at play. I am a smile on a stranger's face a gentle touch a warm embrace. Listen to the wind for my message of love. Watch the sun rise and set in the sky with me. Feel my essence encircle you with warm memories. Open your heart to know...I am not gone. Reach deep into your soul... You will find me. I am here. Have no fear. I am with you, Always.##imported-begin##Rachel Rachis##imported-end##
