William Logan, son of Esau and Ruth Roberts Logan, was born on February 16, 1921 in Cherokee County, South Carolina. God whispered well done and called her home on February 6, 2007. He was named to Connie Mae Logan for fifty-four years and out of this beautiful union came Dennis Keith Logan. He received his education at Saint Peter School in Cherokee South Carolina he also worked at Sparrows Point for thirty-six years. He was a very devoted father, husband, grandfather, uncle and friend to all. He will be missed by family and friends. He leaves to mourn: a son, Dennis K. “ Deara family, please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is truly a devastaing and very painful event for the family and friends left behind. It's like an unreality knowing you cannot see your loved one anymore. God purposes to end sickness and death and all sorrow in the very near future. The bible gives clear evidence that we are living in what the bible calls the last days. 2nd Timothy 3:1-5, and when these last days are ended then Jehovah God will create a new world in which righteous conditions will prevail. 2nd Peter 3:13. Rejoice family, because very soon, in that new world the dead will be brought back to life to be reunited with their loved ones. Imagine seeing William again. All violence, sickness, old-age, and death will be a thing of the past. Isaiah 65:17. Please find comfort in God's promises, as you mourn the death of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
