

William Louis Johnson

July 20, 1989 - August 2, 2007

William Louis Johnson, Jr. is the son of Janet Brown-Jones and William Louis Johnson, Sr. He was born at Mercy Hospital on July 20, 1989 in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of eighteen, God opened up the gates of heaven and allowed him to come home. William was such an outgoing young man. He was so full of life, love and joy. He touched the lives of many. William attended Southside Academy High School, where he was known for his many extracurricular activities, which included: lacross, football, basketball, Philadelphia wrestling tournaments and J.R.O.T.C. He attended Faith Tabernacle Church, where he did a host of services for the Lord. William said he felt really close to God when he sang on the choir. The church he attended before he was called home was New Beginning Highway Church of Christ. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Janet Brown-Jones; father, William Louis Johnson, Sr.; dad, Arvel Jones, Sr.; four brothers, Arvel Jones, Jr., LaVar Jones, Timothy Johnson and Tevin Johnson; grandparents, Katie Brown, James Brown Sr., Eleanor Thomas and James Jones; great-grandmother, Vestura Cockrell; great-grandfather, Louis Dorsey; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many friends including his best friend, Marsano. Not to mention the love of his life, Kirrin Smith and their precious gift he left behind, his unborn child, Nevaeh; which is heaven spelled backwards, if it's a girl or William Louis Johnson, III, if it's a boy.

“ May I send my condolences to you all, the family and friend. Living for a short time really breaks the circle of life for all. We can have hope as the bible say, Romam 15:4, 13. Imagine the happiness that will result when the dead ones are resurrected, John 5:28, Job 14:14, 15. I am looking forward to that happening in the near future. I hope these thoughts will be uplifting to read.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Smokey, I still cannot believe you're no longer with us but I know you in heaven looking down on all those you loved very much. I know I will miss you very much being outside with your friends. It was always a pleasure talking about your school day, baby on the way, and what you all were doing. Watch over us. May God be with your family and friends. RIP, you'll never be forgotten.##imported-begin##Ashley##imported-end##
