

William Albert Manley Sr.

January 29, 1958 - November 16, 2018

William Albert Manley, Sr., 60, was born January 29, 1958 to the late Curtis Otto Manley and Francis Beatrice Solomon in Richmond, Virginia. He was called home to be with his Heavenly Father on November 16, 2018. William is preceded in death by his sister Francis Timberlake.

He was educated in the Richmond Public School system where he received his General Educational Development (GED). William later furthered his education and attended John Tyler College.

He was a member of Greater Refuge Church for the past three years. William married his dear friend, Patricia Lynn Lewis in 1977. He was formerly employed by George Schmitt and Company however contracted by Hewlett-Packard in 2013, where he retired as a supervisor after eleven years of dedicated service.

William enjoyed family, gardening, writing, cooking, football (Cowboys), carpentry and playing the guitar. He was a man of wisdom who imparted life lessons into the lives of others. William grew to have a great appreciation for God, his family and friends. If he were to sum up his life, it would go as this; it's not how you start but how you finish. Life takes us all on a journey of ups and downs but in the end your good should always outweigh the bad. He left this earth loving God and everyone around him. He touched the lives of many and his legacy will continue to live on.

He leaves to cherish his memories: wife, Patricia L. Manley; daughter, Lisa L. Manley; four sons, William A. Manley Jr., Benjamin F. Manley (Audrey), Bryan A. Manley and Curtis E. Manley (Kirsten Siler); two grandchildren, Aalijah P. Manley and Benjamin T. Manley; sister, Lila Ham; five brothers, Bobby Manley, David Manley, Luther Manley, Royal Manley and Ronnie Manley; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and friends.
