

William Thomas Manns

May 26, 1948 - August 2, 2010

William Thomas Manns, Jr. was born on May 26, 1948 and God received him home on August 2, 2010. He was the oldest son of six children, William (Dewey) Manns was born to amazing parents, Virginia Manns and the late William T. Manns, Sr.

Dewey attended public schools and worked in various occupations. He was a unique person that had many hidden talents. He moved at his own pace, danced to his own beat and sang on a different tune. He was a sharp dresser, a smooth talker and had a singing voice of an angel. In early years, you could catch him singing with his group or his family members during holiday events. He dominated every sport that he played such as basketball, baseball and football.

Dewey believed in the Lord. Being raised in a Christian home, he knew to put God first. On many Sundays, you could see him entering his mom's home with sharp suit and a biig smile. Dewey loved his parents and always kept a watchful eye over them.

Dewey had a soft spot for his children and grandchildren. He cherished their relationship dearly. He would take his grandchildren on car rides and purchased them their favorite treats. To know him by William you were an associate, to know him by Dewey you were a childhood friend, to know him by Junior you were a family member, but to know him by all three you have met a loving, family man that was never boring, very entertaining and always had WOW! Moments. He was truly an angel sent from above and will be missed by all.

He was preceded in death by son, Williams Barber (Chucky); a special friend, Jackie Gordon; two siblings, brother, Bruce Manns and sister, Darlene Manns-Williams.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Virginia Manns; three sons, Antonio Manns, Kevin Johnson and Dionne Manns; daughter-in-law, Karen Manns; Four grandchildren, William, Monique, Antonio Jr. and Kendal; three siblings, one sister, Sheila Longus; two brothers, Leon Manns and Darnell Manns; a devoted cousin, Cornelius (Neil) Johnson, and a host of aunts, uncle, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
