

William A. Matthews

May 5, 1957 - July 5, 2015

WILLIAM ALBERT MATTHEWS, son of the late Joseph Elwood and Doris S. Matthews, was born on May 5, 1957. He departed this life unexpectedly on July 5, 2015.

He was educated at Walbrook High School, and studied for two years at Coppin State University. Albie, as he was affectionately known to most family and friends, served five years in the United States Marine Corps and three years in the Army. Until recently, he taught Art and Music in the Baltimore City Public School System.

All who knew him well agree that Albie had two loves: his family and his music. Albie played trumpet in the Marine Corp Band and he played lead and rhythm guitar in the other bands. Lately he was teaching his daughter to play guitar and was extremely proud of her progress. He cherished all of his children and grandchildren and wanted only the best for each of them. Albie also had a great-granddaughter whom he loved dearly.

He leaves to mourn: two sons, Mateo and Mario; five daughters, Lequise Thomas, Shebella, Janine, Jordan and Jazzmin Matthews; four grandchildren, Jwan, Matthews-Fox, Jeremiah, Alyssa and Justince Matthews; one great-granddaughter, Aaliyah Isabella Matthews; his sister, JoAnne Saunders; two brothers, Charles and James Matthews; brother-in-law, Anthony Saunders;

Sister-in-law, Audrey F. Matthews and a host of relatives and dear friends.

although my brother and I lived miles away from each other , we had become very close with the births of each of his daughters. I loved him very much and will miss him, yet rejoice in watching the accomplishments of all of his children, grandchildren and greatgrands.
