

William Mayfield

March 16, 1950 - September 14, 2005

William Mayfield, beloved son of the late Willie Mayfield and Grace McKenzie-Mayfield, was born March 16, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a short illness, William, affectionately known as “Mayfield” departed this life peacefully on September 14, 2005. Mayfield was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked various jobs as a laborer in the construction field. His hobbies were working on automobiles and known as a “Master Chef” in the kitchen. Mayfield had a gentle caring spirit, and always ready to lend a helping hand. He will be remembered for his jokes and smile that would light up a room. He leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved and devoted wife of 21 years Katherine; two sons, William Jr. and Jemell; his mother, Grace; two sisters, Georgia and Sandra; two brothers-in-law, Andre and Arley; one uncle, Steven; one granddaughter, Moenyiha and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come, not only from your precious memories but also from the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
