

William Milton Watts

May 6, 1941 - November 28, 2001

William Milton Watts, affectionately known as “Billy,” son of Viola Watts Milbourne and the late Milton Kelley Watts, was born on May 6, 1941 in Calvert County, Maryland. He departed this life on November 28, 2001 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Calvert County, Maryland and Skidmore Vocational School in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Billy was multi-talented and at an early age mastered the art of barbering, carving and visual arts. Since the age of sixteen, he worked as a carpenter and pipe fitter in various states. He became employed at Heavy’s Barber Shop in Cherry Hill and later worked at the American Tennis Courts Associations. In his later years, he would find bicycle parts and build bikes for the kids in the neighborhood to ride. He married Sharon McLeod Jones on October 23, 1983. Billy made numerous friends wherever he went. He was a comedian at heart. He would bless you out and joke with you later. Everyone, no question, will sincerely miss him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Sharon McLeod Watts; mother, Viola Watts Milbourne; stepfather, Harvey Milbourne; three sisters, Sharon Diggs, Yvette Smith and Duane Wainwright; two brothers, Wayne and Tyrone Watts; two sons, William Quentin Watts and Terren Watts; daughter, Stephanie Watts; three stepsons, Troy, Corren and Kareem Jones; devoted friend, Ruth Fulton; three grandchildren, eight step-grandchildren; mother-in-law, Helen McLeod; twelve sisters-in-law, eleven brothers-in-law, one uncle, two aunts, many nieces and nephews; devoted neighbors, Mary Sue Graham and Maurice (Buddy) Bryant; caregivers, Donetta Bullock and Theolin Hamlin; a host of other relatives and friends.
