

William Mobley

March 28, 1923 - April 24, 2007

William Mobley, son of the late Law and Nannie Mobley, was born on March 28, 1923 in Winnsboro, South Carolina. He departed this life on April 24, 2007, after a lengthy illness. The family moved to Baltimore, Maryland while he was at an early age. He found his first job at Cats Paw Rubber Company, later he worked with Acme Pads and even later with the Baltimore Cab Company. He came from a large family of brothers and sisters, who have since departed: Clarice English, Andy Mobley, Law Mobley, Annie Mae Epps, Easter Mobley, Andrew Mobley and Jane Carter. He leaves to mourn: a brother, Joe Mobley; two sisters, Maggie Craig and Hart Faust; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello's! We send our love to you all. We are Mobley from Chester, South Caroline, not far from you all home town. Death leaves a huge hole in our hearts, how ever our Heavenly Father will fill that hole very soon when no one will ever die again. The greatest news ever told to us. We can look forward to it as the bible say at Isa.25:8 death will be gone forever,swallow up no more tears on our faces from sorrow. Mr. Willian lived a long life to be 80 as the bible say at Ps.90:10 some 70 other because of speacial mightest other 80, would it not be wonderful to live forever, that time is coming very soon. I send our condolences to the Mobley's. Rebecca Mobley.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Every life is so precious to God, that is why he promises to end sickness and death forever. We must endure a little longer these tragedies we face in life until God\\\'s wonderful time of the ressurection comes about. John 5:28,29 tells us, \\\"Donot marvel at this, or donot be shocked at this; because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Yes those in the graves will hear the voice of Jesus, and awaken from the deep sleep of death. I hope that you can find comfort, and strength in God\\\'s wonderful promises, because his word never fails according to Isaiah 55:1,11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Mobley's family. The loss of a dear loved one is very painful and difficult to bear; that is why the Bible calls death our enemy. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes. I sincerely hope that this encouraging message from God's Word will comfort you during this time of grief.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
