

William N. Diggs

June 24, 1927 - January 14, 2008

WILLIAM NELSON DIGGS, son of James E. Diggs and Rosie Alton, was born on June 24, 1927. He departed this world after a lengthy illness on January 14, 2008. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At age seventeen, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. After serving his term in the service, he did various jobs throughout Baltimore, Maryland. William made lots of friends wherever he went. He loved to entertain people with his singing and dancing as well as playing his spoons. People thought he was a very sharp dresser. He leaves to cherish his memory: one niece, Geneva Motley; two nephews, Earl Clark and Maurice Clark; six great-nieces, three great-nephews, six great-great-nephews, ten great-great-nieces and nephews and one great-great-great-great-niece. Hilda Clark preceded before him in death.

“ To The Diggs Family: May God be with your family during this time. God revealed in his word the Bible that it is his purpose that those who have fallen asleep in death be restored to life by means of a resurrection. Jesus Christ himself said at John 5:28&29 that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." When a loved one dies, the Bible acknowledges the grief that a person can feel. Jesus even wept when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. Because of the promise of a future resurrection, I hope that your sorrow is not unrelenting. God's word also tells us that the "last enemy death is to be brought to nothing" (1Cor15:26) but until then, you can draw close to God in prayer for comfort and "he himself will sustain you." Psalm 55:22 With deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Chandra Murphy##imported-end##
