

William Nathaniel Perry

May 31, 1937 - May 13, 2009

Our beloved William "Snookum" Nathaniel Perry, a long time resident of Richmond, Virginia, departed this life May 13, 2009 at Envoy Health Center of Westover Hills. Seventy-one years ago, William born May 31, 1937 to the late William Macthaniel "Mac" Perry and Eunice Rosalee Wright-Perry in Richmond, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his son, William "JL" Perry on April 1, 2008. He attended Maggie L. Walker High School. After high school, Perry moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to live with his father for three years and later relocated back to Richmond. William had worked for OverNite Transportation many years ago as a truck driver, where he retired. With the leading of the Lord and the Holy Spirit, Perry yielded to the calling of his life and was baptized in the early 1980's in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ at a COOLJC Convention held at the Richmond Coliseum under the Pastorate of Chief Apostle William L. Bonner of Refuge Temple in New York City. His sister Jean had introduced him to Holiness in the early eighties. He always said he felt really good. William loved young people and served as a youth advisor at the Westover Hills School playground during the summer, where many of the kids called him "Pop". He loved to treat the kids, more times than himself to the point he stayed broke on many occasions for giving them his money. He loved baseball, football, and many other sports he never participated in, but enjoyed watching all the games. Perry loved laughter, jokes and loved to play cards. He was humorous, soft spoken and a marathon walker. William leaves to mourn his memory four sisters, Jean Perry-

Leonard;formerly of Mount Vernon,New York,Shirley Davis(James),Barbara Ann Williams,of Richmond, Virginia,Clementine Rich(Prince)of Mechanicsville, Virginia;one brother,Edward Lee Williams(Paula),of Richmond;a loving and devoted friend,Ledra Wiley of Richmond, Virginia;a dear and devoted friend,Robin Hood of Hopewell,Randy Perry(Marge,Asha&Yohance)of Mount Vernon,New York. Donna Benarey(Henry)of Newark, Delaware;several aunts,uncles,nieces,nephews,cousins,other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ William Nathaniel Perry

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the scripture at John 11:38-44. Here Jesus demonstrated the resurrection hope with his friend Lazarus. May these verses help to strengthen and encourage you during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my condolences to you all. It is wonderful to learn from the bible that in the near future the resurrection is coming and we will be over joyed with happiness to see and talk with many of our love ones as Jesus call them , John 5:28. I am looking forward to that time because I too have loss dear love ones. The pain and sorrow and suffering that affect us all will be a thing of the past the, Rev.21:3-4.May the many memories shared with Mr. William help on the journey of life.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM