

William Parker

August 3, 1982 - October 29, 2001

William Eugene Parker, the son of Shirley Ann Parker and William Washington was born on August 3, 1982. He departed his life on Monday, October 29, 2001 at Johns Hopkins Hospital. His brother Terrance D. Parker preceded him in death. William was the youngest of three children. His formal education was received from the Baltimore City Public School System. He also attended the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. He was a dedicated worker at Lake Clifton Eastern High School. William loved sports, music, and hanging out with his friends. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be missed sincerely by everyone who knew him. He leaves to cherish him: his loving and caring mother Shirley Ann Parker; his father, William Washington; one son, Marcellius Morant, one loving sister, Lakeisha M. Washington, one nephew, Wanya L. Washington, one niece, Terricka A. Parker; grandmother, Mary Washington; two grandfathers Peter West, Sr., and Manne Moses; twelve aunts, nine uncles, great aunts and uncles, special friend, Adrienne Jones and unborn child, one god-sister, Tangia Rogers and a host of other relatives and friends.
