

William Ellsworth Patterson

June 18, 1924 - June 11, 2013

WILLIAM ELLSWORTH PATTERSON, normally called "Pat," son of the late Charles and Edith Patterson, was born on June 18, 1924. He departed this life on June 11, 2013 after a lengthy illness. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and served in the United States Navy. He worked many years for W.R. Grace and Company and later retired in 1987. He was loved and respected by many, enjoyed Jazz music as well as sports. He always had a smile and a good joke for anyone. He studied under Jehovah's Witnesses for a while and involved his wife into the faith. Pat was my husband as well as my best friend. He will always be missed by myself and many. He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Ruth; sisters, Rachel Parks and Delores Pierce of Syracuse, NY; brother, Leonard Patterson; devoted nephew, Arnold Landon; two sisters-in-law, Delores Matthews and Grace Patterson; one brother-in-law, Otha Pierce; and a host of nieces, other nephews, relatives and friends.

I have hope toward God, that there is going to be resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. — Acts 24:15

#111 HE WILL CALL Life, light a mist, appears with just a day, then disappears tomorrow, all that we are can quickly fade away, replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made; He will call; the dead will answer. They shall live at his command. for he will have a longing for the work of his own hand. so have faith, do not wonder, for our God can make us stand. and we shall live forever, as the work of his own hand. Friends of our God, though they may pass away, Will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's memory stay, from death he will awaken Then we will come to see all that life can be; Paradise eternally.

“ To the Family and Friends of William Ellsworth Patterson,

I am sorry about the loss of your dear loved one. Losing someone very near and dear to us is a very difficult ordeal to endure. However, seeing our loved ones suffer whether it be physically or emotionally in this twisted world is also very hard to endure. So, although this is a hard time for you we should look at it in a positive light as well. They are no longer suffering and living in pain is comforting to us. One day very soon we will no longer have to suffer at the pangs of death. We draw much encouragement from Jehovah's Word. One comforting and reassuring account is at 1 Corinthians 15:26, " As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." What a great time that will be for all mankind. So, again I am very sorry for your loss and my deepest thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.

“ To the family of Mr. Patterson:

I was sadden to hear of the passing of Mr. Patterson. May the memories of him help to ease your pain of sorrow.

Please remember the avenue of prayer (Psalms 55:22) brings out, " Throw your burdens upon Jehovah & he will sustain you". I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers also.

Love,
