

William M. Phillips

February 5, 1935 - May 4, 2018

WILLIAM MCKINLEY PHILLIPS, son of the late William McKinley Phillips and Elsie Coley Phillips, was born on February 5, 1935 in Battleboro, North Carolina. He got his wings on Friday, May 4, 2018 in Johns Hopkins Hospital after a stroke.

He moved to Greenville, NC in his teens and began working at East Carolina College in maintenance. He later moved to Baltimore, MD and became employed at Gross Mechanical Laboratories, Inc, as a laborer where he stayed until his retirement. He enjoyed performing his work and was dedicated to all that he set out to achieve.

In the early 50's he married the late Clara Morning who he loved very much. William enjoyed taking Clara, his nieces, and nephews in his new cars to visit Clara's sister in Washington, DC almost every other Sunday. He took very good care of his cars.

He loved traveling to Ocean City with his daughter and son-in-law. He also enjoyed the fellowship with his niece and nephews at his niece's house during football season and holiday.

William leaves to cherish and celebrate his memory; his daughter, Marthea Lewis (Dennis); sister, Nannie Lousie Phillips "Nan" nephew, Tommie Phillips who took tremendous care of William since 2009 by accompanying him to the doctor, grocery shopping, or whatever William needed he was there; special niece, Mazie Jennings (Mac) grandchildren, Jeff Ruffin, Lashun Pittman, and Sarah Lewis; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
