

William Lee Poole

December 28, 1956 - November 26, 2020

William Lee Poole, son of Mary Robinson and the late Sylvester Poole was called home to Glory on November 26, 2020.

William affectionately known as “Willie” or “Will” was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He left Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School and enlisted in the Army National Guard Reserve in 1974. Willie served four years, he left in 1978 with an honorable discharge. He had an interest in electrical devices, so he enrolled in an electrician school receiving a certificate of completion. Willie worked at the Sheraton Hotel in downtown Baltimore in the catering department for many years, after leaving there he then started his career in the Health Care System. After working at various hospitals he became a Certified Sterile Processing Instrument Technician finding a home of employment at Johns Hopkins Hospital from 2006 until his death.

As a young child, he was baptized at Charity Baptist Church.

Willie loved playing the guitar often playing the one song that he had learned. He enjoyed old school, funk, and rock music often time attending concerts. He loved a good party saying he will “party like a rock star” He enjoyed concerts, casinos, and cabarets. He also enjoyed watching movies as long as it was sci-fi, horror, or action. He especially loved cooking and enjoyed food to the fullest. A part of his wardrobe was his signature Kangol hat when going out casually or dressing up for an event. He spent a lot of time with his two BFF's, his sister, Carrie, and Joe Greene, the three amigos.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Mary Robinson; his daughter, Christina C. Poole; three grandchildren, Mildred, Patrick and Najhia all of Baltimore; two brothers, George of Baltimore and Andre (Latia) of Harrisburg, PA; three sisters, Rosa, Lillie his twin (preceded him in death) Carrie and India all of Baltimore; five nephews, William, Juwan, Larry, Keon, and Andre; three nieces, Korri, D'Nyah and Giannah; best friend, Joe Greene; and a host of other relatives and friends.
