

William Quincey Bland

August 6, 1926 - June 22, 2004

William Quincy Bland, Jr., son of William Bland, Sr. and Leathy Christine Royston Bland, was born on August 6, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on June 22, 2004. Mr. Bland was educated in the Baltimore City School Systems. After completing high school, he enlisted in the United States Army, where he dutifully fought in the Korean War and was honorably discharged in 1947. His marriage to Willia Mae Buck, produced two children, Andrea Christine and Jeffrey Craig, and two stepchildren, Carol Diane and Harold. He became a lifelong employee of Eastern Stainless Steel, where he retired in 1988. Friends always looked for one liners from "Bill" as he kept people laughing and amused. Recently, he taught himself how to play the harmonica and was asked by several churches to display his talent at their special programs. He was known for his creative and artful abilities and received a scholarship to the Maryland institute of Art, where he proudly attended in 2002. At age 55 years old, he joined the "Harbor City Striders," a marathon running organization, where he won numerous races, including three 26 miles races, in his age division. Very active in sports, Mr. Bland enjoyed serving on the bowling league at Woodlawn Fair Lanes. Whatever he touched and had an interest in, "Bill" Bland mastered. As an active member of Providence Baptist Church, he served in the E.W. White Silver Leaf Club, the Thursday Brunch Committee, the Providence Bowling League and attended Sunday school and Saturday Bible School. He helped where he could and everyone was very fond of him. “ From the family of Ruth Jones & the late William Jones. You have our deepest sympathy. Mr. Bland was our father's best friend. They met in 1953 and he became a very important part of our family. He was a good Godfather to Kimberly. He shared in our happy and sad times. He was our personal photographer. We looked forward to listening to his corny jokes. We will truly miss him.##imported-begin##Deborrah Jones##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family: I would like to offer my deepest sympathies for your loss. Although, time has passed the memories of your loved one remain. May you find comfort in knowing that by means of Almighty God, a resurrection hope exists for the righteous and unrighteous as recorded at Acts 24:15 (please read). Please find comfort in knowing that the prospect of seeing your loved one in the future is possible.##imported-begin##F. Allston##imported-end##
