

William R. Boone

August 4, 1933 - April 17, 2009

William Roby Boone Jr. or “Billy Boone” as he was best known, was born on August 4, 1933 to the late William Roby Boone Sr. and Bernice Haskins-Boone in Baltimore, Maryland. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. As a teenager, William gave his life to Christ in May 1949 at the St. Phillips Evangelical Lutheran Church. At the age of twenty, the United States Army called William to serve his country. He served one term and was honorably discharged. After leaving the Army, William wore various hats before he was employed with Bond Distributing Company, from which he retired. In addition to family, work and Church, William was a member of the Apollo Social Club and the Elks Lodge. For the past several years, he was a member of Christ United Methodist until his health declined. William was called to glory on Friday, April 17, 2009. His four sisters, Sylvia, Vera, Vivian and Cherry, preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn the love of his life, Bertha Louise, children, William, Vernon, Cynthia- White and three stepchildren, Robert, Harvey, and Sandra Jackson. From his first union to Florence V. Boone, he leaves to mourn two daughters, Vanessa Boone-Davis and Lorefei Smith, four sons, Brant, Kent, Renard, and Theron, two daughters-in-laws, Leona and Tina and one son-in-law, Robin, seventeen grand-children, eighteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
