“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. The sadness we feel at such times can be so overwhelming, but it's comforting to know that we have a heavenly father who cares for us. (1st Peter 5,7). One day, he promises, all sickness and death will be a thing of the past. Then people will be able to enjoy life to the full, without death hanging over their heads like a dark cloud. 1st Corinthians 15,26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. After which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; according to John 5,28,29. May you find comfort and strength in God's wonderful promises, until the glorious resurrection takes place.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
