

William Roberson

March 22, 1926 - April 17, 2003

William H. Roberson Jr. fell into eternal rest on April 17, 2003. Robb or Shane as many people knew him was born on March 22, 1926 in Hamilton, North Carolina to the late Anna Powell and William Roberson. He came to Baltimore at an early age and attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. He joined the United States Army and upon his discharge from service was employed as a crane operator at Bethlehem Steel Corporation for more than thirty-five years. Robb frequented Leadenhall Baptist Church and other area churches prior to his illness. He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Barbara Roberson; three sons, Richard Jackson of South Carolina, Norman Wesson, Cottrell Wesson; six daughters, Priscilla Roberson, Geraldine Phillips, Veronica Sherrill, Roxie Wesson, Isla Bell and Pamela Wesson; two brothers, Calvin Gilliam and Clayton Gilliam; two sisters, Eura Bennett and Evelyn Kornegay; mother-in-law, Dorothy Shipley; many grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends. Sons, Sherman Jackson and Donald Roberson and daughters, Anna Roberson and Ramona Leach preceded him in death. Robb was a devoted husband, a loving father and a special friend. He is fondly remembered by all for his caring ways, dependability and zest for life. He lived life to the fullest. He particularly enjoyed family gatherings where he would prepare his favorite foods for everyone. Robb was an active member of the American Legion Post #285 where he was a faithful member for many years until his illness prevented him from doing so. Everyone will miss him.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
