

William Robinson Sr.

November 5, 1922 - July 14, 2013

WILLIAM ROBINSON SR. the youngest son of the late John and Elsie Bell Robinson, was born on November 5, 1922. At the age of ninety (90) and after a lengthy illness, he was called to eternal rest on July 14, 2013. "Dilly," as everyone knew him, spent his entire life living and working in Baltimore, Maryland and was a father figure to everyone.

He attended the Baltimore Public School System and at the age of eighteen (18) joined the United States Army from 1941 to 1945; serving in WWII. After completing his military service, Dilly was married to the late Mildred C. Carter and blessed with eight children. Dilly worked for forty-four years as a "Longshoreman" for the Steamship Trade Union. During his twenty-eight years of retirement, he enjoyed watching westerns and spending time outdoors.

Preceding in his death are: wife, Mildred; two brothers, Charles and John; five sisters, Carrie Galloway, Margaret Harris, Irene Noel, Ruby Morroz and Vatteen Mealey; and daughter, Kimberly Robinson.

He leaves to mourn: one sister, LeRay Snowden; ten children, Joyce Robinson, Wanda Morton, William Robinson, Jr. (Robin), Richard Robinson, Delores Brownley, M. Renee Flemming (Samuel), Hilda Hopewell (James), Gary Robinson, Toni Bellamy (Trenton) and Jean Staten; twenty-two grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren; eight nieces, one nephew, and a host of other relatives and friends.

To the family of William Robinson :

I am very sorry to hear of your loss,, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again,, I am very sorry for your loss and I hope this message brings you much comfort..
