“ I wish to share some comforting words of condolence with your family. It's been some months since he passed away, yet even though the pain eases over time; losing a loved one is something we never completely get over. We miss them so much with the passing of time. One day we have the hope of seeing our loved ones alive again. By means of a resurrection many will come back to life. John 5:28,29 makes this wonderful promise, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life" So the dead will hear the voice of our saviour Christ Jesus, and they will come back to life. May the hope of the resurrection be an anchor for your souls, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
