

WILLIAM SANTOS

October 19, 1975 - January 11, 2020

William Santos was born the second child of the late William H. Santos and Brenda A Johnson. He departed this life on Saturday, January 11, 2020 after a lengthy illness.

William received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked at pallet warehouse until he took sick.

William was a fun loving outgoing guy. He was the big guy with a big heart to match. Man-Man, Fatboy ,Will or Santos is what family and friends called him. Willam loved dirt bikes, monster trucks the Ravens and his sister Amelia's cooking.

William leaves to cherish his memory: the love of his life his wife April Santos; one daughter Jaionna Aliyah Santos his princess who he thought the world of; three stepchildren Juan ,Jon and Cimone; two sisters Amelia T. Santos Loyal and Antoinette Bradford who preceded him in death; one brother Dwayne Santos; in-laws Mary and Tyrone; sisters-in-law Pearl, Londa, Beverly, and Mary; two brothers-in-law, John D. Loyal Sr. John Tindal; six nieces Shamia the oldest was his pride in joy, Aisha, Da'China, Tanay, Katera and Lyric; two nephews John Jr. and Demari; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends. Sharon, Eric and Mia-Mia always held a special place in his heart.

“ I remember when we first met you jumped in front of me in the cafeteria 😂 I was pretending to be angry. Walked to the table shaking my milk with my bighead titled asking everyone who is he 🙄👤♀ Fake mad because I wanted to know who you were 😂 They were all saying oh that's Big Santos. I was obsessed but fake mad. I guess you were interested too because you presuded me for months, until you final got someone close to me to get me outside 😂 You paid my little sister to come get me...That was 27 years ago. We may spent alot of those years apart but I never stopped loving you. Towards the end it was difficult, but I never stopped loving you. I lived my life to care for you. I now have to take care of me. I am not sure how to be me without my Fatboy, my William, my best friend and some days that man I wanted to knock out 😂. I just want you to know that I will make you proud. Don't worry about the girls they are going to be good. I know you will still be near I still hear and feel your presence. Thank you for the time we spent together. I promise to make you proud best friend. Rest easy no more suffering 🙏💕💕💕💕😭
