

William Scott

March 12, 1955 - February 19, 2007

William H. Scott, son of the late Lennie Walker and Gertie Scott Blunt, was born on March 12, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home in the early morning hours of February 9, 2007. William received his education in the Baltimore City public schools. He then entered the armed services where he served a short term. Upon leaving the military he became a long-term, devoted employee in the home improvement field where he worked until his death. William was highly loved and respected by those who knew him. He had a love for animals, especially his dog, Smokey and his fish. He was a very kind and giving soul and was always willing to help and to give his very last. William was preceded in death by his sister, Denise Blunt. He leaves to cherish his memory: his sisters, Evelyn Blunt, Sharon Walker, Gwendolyn Walker, Yvette Blunt, Zelda Walker and Stephanie Blunt-Vickers; brothers, James Blunt and Eric Blunt; brother-in-law, Eugene L. Vickers Sr.; sister-in-law, Marguerite Blunt; aunt, Magruder Cockrell; uncle, Melvin Scott; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; including a very good friend, Solomon Robinson who was there until the end.

Tribute Wall

“ William Scott

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello! Scott's ! I would like to express my condolences to you, the family & friends. It will soon be a year since William die. May the pain be healed by the comfort we get from our creator of all things. The bible has so many postive promises to help you all get through this time in your life. Imagine the happiness that will result when dead loved ones are resurrected as John 5:28 say My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Saddy, death at present, is a harsh reality of life for all of us. This sorrow and pain was never Jehovah's purpose for us. He desires all of his obedient children to live forever in peace and happiness. Adam lost everlasting life for mankind, with the ransom Jesus paid he was able to buy back what Adam lost with his perfect life laid down in our behalf. As 1st Timothy 2,6 brings out, Jesus gave himself a corresponding ransom for all. 1st Corinthians 15,22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive. One day, according to John5,28,29, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a ressurection of life. Your William will indeed be able to live again under God's arrangement. May those wonderful promises give you comfort and strength to deal with his loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ John 11:25, 26 “Jesus said to her: I am her resurrection and the life, He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life... Please find comfort in knowing that one day death will be no more. This a promise our creator made to mankind.##imported-begin##Kennedy's##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM