“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Smith family. I will always remember the times that I had with Uncle Bubba, from the times we had in grandma house on Division st. To riding in the silver volks wagon. Uncle Bubba was a gentle giant. And a real family man. Uncle Bubba look out and treated me not like a niece but like a father figure. His nickname for me was Kiddo. From the family dinners at grandmas or the barbecue at his house. Those are my most precious memories and so many others. I thank God for blessing with Uncle Bubba. Love Janice Wesley Eley

“ Cousin William embodies the legacy of love for family. He reached out to us in ways that proved his love. His in-person greetings and big smile at family reunions and other events made all of us feel excited to see each other once again. This is what we know and will remember in the days to come. We love you dearly, Cousin William. Rest in peace.

Earlian and Bill.
