

William L. Spraggins Sr.

April 17, 1942 - February 1, 2021

WILLIAM LEON SPRAGGINS, son of the Late Andrew and Lillie Frances Petty Spraggins, was born on April 17, 1942 in South Boston, Virginia. After a lengthy illness, he transitioned from this life on February 1, 2021 to be with his Saviour, Jesus the Christ.

Lee, Leon, grandpa as he was affectionately known, was the third of five children; he is predeceased by his two brothers, Mitchell and Floyd Spraggins. He married Joyce Singleton Spraggins, who predeceased him on May 11, 1986; and of this union three children were born, Pamela Renee, William Junior, and Kevin. Pamela predeceased her Father when she too transitioned to be with Jesus on January 29, 2021.

Leon held various employment over the years prior to his retirement including but not limited to, Kennicott Copper Company, Towson State University, and contract building repair work. He enjoyed fishing, cooking, armchair coaching for his favorite sports teams, traveling with his buddies, and conversing with friends, and neighbors.

Leon accepted Christ at a young age in South Boston, Virginia, and later joined his beloved New Christian Memorial Church in Baltimore, Maryland. As his health declined, he was unable to attend regularly, but enjoyed the care and concern expressed by the ministry of the church when they visited him at home.

He leaves to mourn two sons William Jr., and Kevin; his brother Andrew “June”, and a sister, Betty Brown (Nat); grandchildren Sharee, Daniel, Jocelyn, Christopher, Montes, Jasmine and Victoria; 5 Great Grandchildren; his very best and life-long friend Ida MacKay, and neighbor Charles Edwards; and a host of nieces and nephews.
