“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you be comforted by the resurrection hope. Jesus demonstrated this at John 11:38-44 with his friend Lazarus. May these verses comfort and strengthen you during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. What joy there will be when all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear Jesus' voice and come out of death by means of the resurrection! (John 5:28,29).##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
