

William Rozzell Taylor

May 7, 1963 - October 4, 2015

William Rozzell Taylor was born May 7 1963 to Jeanette Taylor Lewis and the late Aubrey H. Brown Sr. in Richmond Virginia. He departed this life to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ on Sunday, October 4, 2015.

William grew up in the Fulton community of Richmond and graduated from Armstrong High School in 1981. He continued his education at the Richmond Technical Center specializing in air condition and refrigeration training. He was also certified in ductwork installation. William was a spiritual man who loved the Lord. That love led him on a path through the doors of New Life of Youth Ministries where he became a member.

After landing a professional job at the Federal Reserve Bank as an air conditioning technician, he took an interest in driving big trucks. He received all truck driving endorsements and was employed at a host of trucking companies including: Simons Hauling Co., Prime Trucking Co., his last job was Pryor Hauling Co.

Over his short time here with us he explored the United States from the East coast to the West coast. During his down time he enjoyed fishing and watching movies.

William was preceded in death by his grandparents, Grace R. Taylor and Samuel H. Taylor Sr. He leaves to cherish his memories his daughter, Yolanda Sabrina Harris; son, William Rozzell Harris; two grandchildren, Rozzell Zion Harris and Jayveon Kael Harris; caring mother, Jeanette Taylor Lewis; step-father, Mason L. Lewis, Jr., devoted brother, Mason Lewis, III (Fran); two nephews, Chance L. Baskerville and Markus L. Lewis; aunts, Grace T. Dabbs (Linwood) and Frances T. Carr who was like a second mother to him; uncles, Samuel H. Taylor, Jr. and William S. Taylor; life-long friend and mother of his only two children, Yolanda Harris Gilliam; devoted friend, Malaika M. Greene; a very special friend, Jewel Key, a host of other relatives and friends.
