

William L. Wallace, Sr.

November 14, 1938 - October 6, 2024

Though my earthly journey has come to an end, please do not grieve for me, for I am at peace. I am free from all pain and worry, and I have gone to my eternal resting place with the Lord. Know that I will always be with you - in laughter, all the good memories, our family gatherings, in the rhythm of our favorite songs, and in the warmth of your hearts.

I've reunited with those we've loved and lost, and together we watch over you with love and joy. Do not shed tears for me, but instead, celebrate the life we shared. My love for each of you remains, unbroken and eternal. I will forever cherish the memories, and I ask that you continue to live life to the fullest, as I did. Be strong, stay together, and carry my spirit with you always.

I am not gone; I live on in your hearts, and one day, we will be together again in everlasting peace “ Christmas will also be special to me. My dad always did it big. The lights, decorations, the tree, music. Everyone in the neighborhood always came to the house to see what we got. It is because of him that I enjoy the season. Now I do the same for my children and grandchildren.
