

William Benjamin Washington Jr.

August 15, 1954 - November 9, 2017

William Benjamin "Redd" Washington, Jr. of Richmond, Virginia peacefully transitioned to be with his Lord and Savior on November 9, 2017. He was born to the late William B. Washington and Frances Meadows on August 15, 1954.

William attended public school systems in Brooklyn, New York and Richmond, Virginia and graduated from John F. Kennedy High School in 1974. He later joined the United States Army along with his brother, Michael Leon Washington under the "Buddy Plan". After his tour of duty, he received an Honorable Discharge. He was employed at Du Pont for a brief time. He later became an excellent painter at MCV Hospital and shortly thereafter pursued his passion for landscaping. Many, many homes in the Richmond area proudly display beautiful yards because of his talents.

William was a sincere, loving and caring person and was loyal and protective of his family and friends. He loved life and he loved to laugh. He was indeed a people person.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, William and Nellie Washington; father, William B. Washington, Sr.; brother, Michael L. Washington.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving mother, Frances Meadows; two sisters, Juanita Meadows and caring, loving and devoted Sylvia Z. Robinson; three brother, Gregory Washington, Jesse Washington (Virginia) and Alfred Meadows, III; six children, Revanna El (Swaynetta), Angela Fife, Kelly Andrews, Jessica Tucker (Rick), Kimberly Easley and William Glover; eleven grandchildren, Qasim, Tamea, Brittany, Briona, Amanda, Kaiyla, Conner, Dajon, Tracy, Dylan, Kaeli and a host of other relatives and friends.
