

William E. Waters, III

December 15, 1949 - March 19, 2016

William Edward Waters, III, affectionately known as "Pickles" was born in La Plata, Maryland on December 15, 1949. The first child born to the late Nancy & William Waters, Jr. On Saturday, March 19, 2016 Pickles was suddenly called home at the age of 66.

Pickles was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed for numerous years as a Fork Lift driver with Baltimore AirCoil Company. He also briefly worked as a truck driver and a roofer. He went into early retirement as a result of health issues.

Pickles was an avid sports fan. He enjoyed spending weekends hanging out with his father and brothers watching baseball, basketball and football. In his spare time he also enjoyed playing pool and became the unofficial neighborhood chauffeur. The life of the party, you could always count on him for a good laugh or a good tongue lashing, with Pickles it could go either way. He was also the self appointed taste tester at all family meals.

Pickles was a fun loving soul who made a lasting impression on everyone he encountered. His presence will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Pickles has been reunited with his loved ones that preceded him in death, his mother, Nancy Waters, sister-in-law, Sheri Waters, nephew, Tavon Waters, Sr., and God daughter, Valerie.

Pickles leaves to cherish his memory: his father, William Waters, Jr.; four brothers, Wayne, James, Kenneth, and Jeffrey; one sister, Gale; one sister-in-law, Wanda; six nephews, Wallace, James Jr., Wayne, Brandon, William and Justin; five nieces, Sheriea, Kimberly, Tiffany, Kristie, and Destiney; two God children, Sheila and Mary; one favorite cousin Gilbert; three lifelong friends, Denny, Gary and Johnson; and a host of other family and friends.
