

William Young

October 24, 1923 - August 6, 2005

WILLIAM ANDREW YOUNG, fondly known as Bill, was one of five children born to the late Clarence Sr. and Ana Young. Bill was born blind. He graduated from Overlea School for the Blind where he learned to play piano exceptionally well. He used this skill to play in night clubs and with various jazz bands in and around the Baltimore Metropolitan Area. He also used his gift to play for Ames Memorial United Methodist Church, Baltimore, MD as well as other churches. He played until he was admitted to Forest Haven Nursing home. Although Bill was an avid Baltimore Orioles fan, he derived his greatest joy from serving the Lord. He supplied music for whatever churches visited Forest Haven regardless of denomination. William was predeceased by his parents, his brother (Ernest Young) and his sister (Evelyn Moore). He is survived by his sister (Evelyn Moore). He is survived by his sister (Dorothy Daniels) his brother, (Clarence Young, Jr.); many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the friends and family of Mr. Young. I wish to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. I just want to share a scripture with you to help comfort you during this most difficult time. At Isaiah 26:19, we're given a promise to see our loved ones again. It reads, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." Wouldn't it be wonderful to see your loved ones again? I know it would for me. Well, we are told that we WILL see them again and that promise will be fulfilled soon. Through a resurrection that Jesus spoke about at John 5:28,29 we are assured of this hope of seeing family and friends that death has taken from us. Afterwards, Almighty God promises to, "Actually swallow up death forever..." Please see these bible truths firsthand in your copy of the bible.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##
