“ Ms. Connie, heart breaks for you and your family, and I pray that God will be your comforter at this time and the days ahead. My brother 1160 as we called him on the radio this is Wild child and I know you had to go because God called and he needed you more. I will always cherish our friendship and the time we ran up the road together talking on the radio. Thank you for welcoming me into your life and your home, thank you for being a great friend and I will miss sitting with you while you work on my radio and just having a good time talking about God and how great He is. Until we meet again and walk the streets of gold in heaven. Rest on my brother with the Lord amen.

“ Remembering The Family Cookouts, laughs and the many conversations. Mr. Will, a wise man, who's smile, wonderful and gentle soul will forever remain in our heart. It was a pleasure being your neighbor and a part of your family. Mrs. Connie, Leroy and I pray that God will heal your broken heart granting you and your family the strength you need and may he also give all of you comfort and healing throughout this sad and sorrowful time.
