

Willie Barnes

September 14, 1940 - March 6, 2003

On September 14, 1940, Willie Ray Barnes, loving father of five, Jimmy, Peaches, Willie Jr., Patricia and Lakisha. He was born to the late Cherry Lee Barnes and deceased father in Greenville, North Carolina, where he was educated. Willie was one of four siblings, two brothers and a sister. He departed this life approximately 11:02 p.m. on March 6, 2003. He held down jobs as he was determined to make a difference. He married Nancy Barnes and touched the hearts of which he contacted. While in South Carolina, he fathered two children by Dora Lee Anderson. Over the years, he then moved to Baltimore, Maryland and met the late Betty Jean Brown and fathered three children. Throughout his two families he gained five children, Marshall from his first and Lee, Deborah, Gladys and Marie from his second in which he accepted as his own. Willie was a loving brother, father, grandparent and role model. He was known for being outspoken and giving. He leaves to mourn: four aunts, Lizz Little, Annie Cogdell, Shirley Shepperd and Roberta Mayo; one uncle, Norman Barnes; two brothers, Robert Bland of Washington D.C. and Kurt Barnes of North Carolina; one sister, Carolyn Langinhouse of North Carolina; ten children, Jimmy, Peaches, Lakisha, Patricia, Willie Jr., Marshall, Deborah, Lee, Gladys and Marie; grandchildren, great grandchildren, and a host of family and friends; and a wife, Nancy.

Tribute Wall

“ Willie Barnes

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Willie Barnes

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM