

Willie Belin

November 4, 1962 - April 5, 2016

Willie "Earl" Belin was born in South Carolina in 1962, the eldest child of Willie Lee (W.L.) and Henrietta Belin. His early years were spent in Plainfield, New Jersey, then Baltimore, Maryland, where he transitioned on Tuesday, April 5, 2016 with his wife Teresa Belin by his side.

Earl spent much of his young life in the care of his loving grandparents Legette and Geneva McNeil (both deceased) who raised him up to know righteousness and godly truth. Earl attended school in the Baltimore Public School System, and had a natural gift for electrical work, a trade he learned from his father. Earl had many friends and knew many people. He was charismatic and funny and knew how to have a good time. But more than this, Earl was passionate. His personality was real and anyone who really knew him understood and appreciated his authenticity. Throughout his life, there were challenges, but Earl always landed on his feet. He confessed Jesus as his Saviour and believed on him for his salvation. Earl attended services at Enoch Baptist Church and his final days were spent with his wife Teresa, who he referred to as "Doll."

He leaves to mourn his beloved and devoted wife, Teresa; his mother-in-law, Beatrice Hawkins (Rudolph); his children LaSalle, Marselille, Earl Miles, Dionno, Donminck, and Akil Belin; step-children Luqueha, Laquan, and Patrice Brittingham; his siblings Terry Belin (Anthony), Erica Edwards, Joshua, Tayawna, and Jair Belin; Isha and Natasha Kelly, Michelle Dorsey Jackson, Jarnel Wright, Sharon Woods, and Craig Lightner. Earl also leaves a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and friends from north, east, and south as well as a close friend, Andrew Marcus.

Earl was preceded in death by his parents W.L. (Deborah) and Henrietta (Henry, deceased); son Terrence Belin and sister Lillian Edwards.
