

Willie L. Billinger Jr

September 1, 1954 - July 8, 2011

Willie Louis Billinger, Jr., was born on September 1, 1954, to the late Willie Louis Billinger, Sr., and the late Estella Billinger in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on Friday, July 8, 2011. His wife Seletia Billinger, preceded him in death.

Willie accepted Christ at an early age. After being re-instated with Jesus Christ, he became a member of the People Church of Baltimore Baptist.

Willie received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked as a Construction Worker most of his life. Muggie as he was called by everyone had numerous friends and was liked by everyone he met. He was always willing to lend a helping hand and was a very true friend. Whenever you saw Muggie, he always wore a smile, always loving, kind and was easy going. He would give you the shirt off his back in the hard winter time, if that's what you needed. Muggie will be deeply missed by those who knew and loved him.

He leaves to mourn, the sons: Willie L. Billinger, III., Abriel Billinger (Erika) and Antwan Venable; one daughter, Seletia; five grandchildren, Javoix, Skyy, Tamara, Jayvonte and Myla; two brothers, Willie J. Billinger and Charlie A. Billinger; four sisters Helen Bethea, Elizabeth Eaton, Ida Simms and Jean Billinger; two brother-in-laws, Roy Eaton and Clarence Drummond; A special niece, Mary Billinger-Heggie and a very special sister Beverly Beckett. A host of other niece, nephews, relatives and friends.
